

As an Overseas Friend of the Garden & Landscape Designers Association you are entitled to:-

- Receive an annual subscription to the GLDA's journal Compass
- Have advance notice of all lectures, tours and seminars
- Enjoy a reduced entry fee to events for prepaid bookings
- Attend courses and workshops run by the GLDA (subject to places being available)
- Support and mentoring when going forward for assessment for full membership

The Garden & Landscape Designers Association aims to be at the forefront of developments in gardens and gardening in Ireland and as an Overseas Friend of the GLDA you can be there too for only €45 per annum.

The Overseas Friend category is open to all residing outside of Ireland - from those who have a professional interest such as landscapers or writers, to those who enjoy their garden.

Please note: Overseas Friends of the GLDA who engage in any aspect of horticultural employment are not entitled to use their Friend status as an indication of their capabilities. The Overseas Friend category is open to any member of the general public with an interest in garden and landscape design and, as such, confers no professional standard. Overseas Friends may apply for Pre-Registered Membership at a future date.
