

FRIEND / OVERSEAS FRIEND MEMBERSHIP

These categories are open to professionals and to members of the public, residing within the 32 counties or outside Ireland, with an interest in garden and landscape design who wish to support the aims of the GLDA and become involved in its activities.

As a Friend / Overseas Friend of the Garden & Landscape Designers Association you are entitled to:-

- Receive an annual subscription to the GLDA's journal Compass (published twice a year)
- Receive regular online newsletters from the GLDA
- Have advance notice of all lectures, tours and seminars
- Enjoy a reduced entry fee to events for prepaid bookings
- Attend courses and workshops run by the GLDA (subject to places being available)
- If a professional designer, you also receive support and mentoring when going forward for assessment for full membership

The Garden & Landscape Designers Association aims to be at the forefront of developments in gardens and gardening in Ireland and as a Friend / Overseas Friend of the GLDA you can be there too for only €50 per annum (if based in Ireland) or €60 per annum (if based overseas). The membership year commences on 01 March.

The Friend category is open to all - from those who have a professional interest such as landscapers or writers, to those who enjoy their garden.

Please note: Friends of the GLDA who engage in any aspect of horticultural employment are not entitled to use their Friend / Overseas Friend status as an indication of their capabilities. The Friend / Overseas Friend categories are open to any member of the general public with an interest in garden and landscape design and, as such, confers no professional standard. Friends / Overseas Friends working as designers may apply for Pre-Registered Membership at a future date.
